Chama and Peter Gomez began round dancing and teaching together in southern California in 2000. They introduced their InSync Dancers Social Round Dance Club a couple years later and sealed their dancing and teaching partnership.

Peter and Chama offer Phase 1 through 5 social dance lessons throughout the year at their weekly beginner and intermediate classes. They enjoy supporting and promoting the round dance activity. They attend ballroom clinics, educational seminars, and round dance weekends to learn new dance styling and teaching techniques from some of the finest dancers in the country.

Chama and Peter are members of the International Association of Round Dance Instructors (RAL) and the International Choreographed Ballroom Dance Association (ICBDA).

Peter and Chama were married in 2009 after a five-year courtship. They live in the metropolitan Denver area where they each have successful and enjoyable careers in the financial services and animal health industries.
